

Welcome back, Thumper Parents!

Senior year is here! These are precious days now leading up to the grand finale of graduation.

This school year is being filled abundantly with even more special times for our daughters to cherish forever. With the college application season in full swing, tending to all the dates and details of our high school activities here at St. Francis can be quite a balancing act.

Here are some highlights of what's happening around campus in the next few months that Senior parents especially will want to take notice of:

October

- 3 (Wednesday) 6:30pm: College Financial Aid Night
- 4 (Thursday) 9:30am: St. Francis Feast Day / Mass
- 11 (Thursday) Thankful Thursday (our time for giving)
- 16 (Tuesday) Graduation packets distributed to students
- 17 (Wednesday) 7:30am: Coffee with the Counselors for Senior Parents
- 28 (Sunday) 12:30pm: Rachel Hollis event (NYT best-selling author)
- 29 (Monday) Homecoming Week kicks off (count those cans!)

November

- 1 (Thursday) 10:35am: All Saints Day Mass
- 3 (Saturday) 7pm: Homecoming Dance
- 14 (Wednesday) 7:30am: Coffee with the Counselors for Senior Parents
- 17 (Saturday) Last day for Senior portrait sitting (schedule in advance)
- 20 (Tuesday) 10:35am: Thanksgiving Prayer Service
- 30 (Friday) 7pm: Father - Daughter Dance

December

17 (Monday) through 20 (Thursday): Finals

January

8 (Tuesday): First day of 2nd semester classes (with a side of Senioritis!)

In the spirit of Pax et Bonum,
Laura Vederá Burmester, Irene Colgan, Kellie Urkov, Fernanda Beattie
Your Class of 2019 representatives